INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors Citizens Commission on Human Rights Los Angeles, California

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of Citizens Commission on Human Rights (a nonprofit organization) as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Citizens Commission on Human Rights of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Note 1 NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES -

Description of Reporting Entity-

Citizens Commission on Human Rights (CCHR) is a California, tax-exempt, nonprofit, public benefit corporation dedicated to investigating and exposing psychiatric violations of human rights. As a research and educational organization, CCHR's primary goal is to provide the general public with the facts they need for a better understanding of the social, medical, economic and legal effects of certain psychiatric practices and treatments. It also seeks to protect the public against increasing encroachment on individual rights and civil liberties that result from psychiatry's impingement on society.

CCHR's objectives are to bring these matters to the attention of the public and relevant governmental entities and to encourage a more responsible approach to mental healing that respects human and civil rights of all individuals concerned.

CCHR achieves its goals through extensive educational and outreach activities. It conducts research, publishes educational literature, serves as an international informational clearinghouse, hosts educational events, and engages in other public outreach and educational activities, including providing tours of its permanent museum, Psychiatry, the Industry of Death Museum.

Tax Exempt Status-

CCHR is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3). CCHR is also recognized by the California Franchise Tax Board as exempt from California Corporation Franchise Tax under Section 23772(a)(2)(A)(i) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code and exempt from income tax under Section 2370(1)(d). CCHR qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization other than a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2).

Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes-

CCHR adopted the provisions of FASB ASC Number 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. FASB ASC Number 740-10 changes the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes by creating a new framework for how organizations should recognize, measure, present and disclose uncertain tax positions in their financial statements. Under FASB ASC Number 740-10, an organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such positions are then measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon settlement. As of December 31, 2009, CCHR has not taken any uncertain tax positions in their financial statements.

Basis of Accounting-

The financial statements of CCHR have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as applicable to nonprofit organizations.

Certain 2008 amounts are reclassified to conform to the 2009 presentation.

Basis of Presentation-

The financial statements of CCHR have been presented in accordance with the AICPA's Audit and Accounting Guide, "Not-For-Profit Organizations." The accounting policies followed are described below.

Net Asset Classes-

The accompanying financial statements present information regarding CCHR's financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted, temporarily restricted and permanently restricted. The three classes are differentiated by donor restrictions:

a- Unrestricted

Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions, or donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met within the same reporting period.

b- Temporarily Restricted

Net assets that are subject to donor-imposed time or use restrictions that have not been met as of year-end. Temporarily restricted net assets are restricted for time (e.g., multi-year pledges) or specific programs. There were no temporarily restricted net assets at December 31, 2009 and 2008.

c- Permanently Restricted

Net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions that are maintained permanently. There were no permanently restricted net assets at December 31, 2009 and 2008.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements -

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents-

Cash and cash equivalents include all funds in banks and highly liquid investments in other financial institutions, with initial maturity of three months or less. The carrying value approximates fair value.

Inventory-

Inventory is stated at lower of cost or market; cost is determined by the average cost method. Inventory consists of public awareness and/or educational booklets, pamphlets and books, as well as insignia promoting the museum. Shipping costs are expensed when paid.

Property and equipment-

Property and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation is computed using primarily the straight-line method, with the following estimated useful lives:

	YEARS
Furniture and equipment	5
Display fixtures	7
Software	3

Expenditures for maintenance, repairs, and renewals of minor items are charged to expense as incurred. Major renewals and improvements are capitalized. Upon disposition, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and the resulting gain or loss is reflected in operations for the period.

Receivables-

Receivables represent amounts owed to CCHR by CCHR chapters for license fees and by donor pledged unconditional promises to give. The receivables are stated at fair value net of allowances.

Subsequent events-

Management has evaluated subsequent events through September 16, 2010, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 4 RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

CCHR is affiliated with the Church of Scientology International (CSI) and Social Betterment Properties Incorporated (SBPI), both of which are tax-exempt nonprofit corporations.

CCHR is related to all CCHR chapters globally and all license fees receivable are from related parties.

CCHR received contributions from US IAS Members' Trust in the amount of $1,093,955 and $890,709 in 2009 and 2008, respectively.

CCHR occupies a facility owned by SBPI, rent free. The approximate fair value of the monthly rent was estimated to be $32,460, which is included in contributions and rent expenses in the statement of activities.

CCHR reimbursed CSI for the liability insurance premiums under group insurance policies obtained by CSI, in the amounts of $4,408 and $13,037 in 2009 and 2008, respectively.

Note 5 CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

In 2009, there are no cash and cash equivalents in excess of insured limits. Cash and cash equivalents includes approximately $130,000 in 2008, in excess of insured limits. It is the opinion of CCHR management that the solvency of the relevant financial institutions is not of particular concern.

Under the federal government's Temporary Liquidity Guarantee Program (TLGP) that includes the Transaction Account Guarantee (TAG), deposits in qualifying noninterest-bearing accounts maintained at insured depository institutions have unlimited FDIC coverage through January 1, 2010. On July 12, 2010, the FDIC permanently raised the maximum deposit insurance amount to $250,000.

Note 6 FUNCTIONAL EXPENSES

The costs of providing CCHR's programs and the supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities, and in the statement of functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated between program and supporting services in reasonable ratios determined by management.
